

Enjoy the Christmas magic at the former AKH
12 November - 24 December 2005

Each year before Christmas the beautiful park of Vienna's former General Hospital ("Altes AKH") changes into an atmospheric paradise aglow with illuminations and colours, full of merry sounds and tempting fragrances. The young and the young at heart are enchanted by the festive magic of the lovingly designed Christmas Village at the former General Hospital. Your heart's desires, small or large, are fulfilled by the wide range of lavish, extraordinary, sophisticated and precious goods.

So it is not surprising that the Christmas Village at the former General Hospital has become an absolute must for the Viennese and all admirers of Vienna.

Due to its pleasant atmosphere, the Christmas Village at the former General Hospital is renowned and beloved far beyond the borders of Vienna.

The Christmas market at the former General Hospital is an insider tip for tourists, because it's there that you can still enjoy a traditional Viennese Christmas!

Children are delighted by the nostalgic merry-go-round and the Christmas train, adults are provided with the best variations of punch and mulled wine and delicious food.

Indulge yourself in some hours of "a real Viennese Christmas", a must in Christmas time, a must during your stay at Vienna.
